

Doctor of Chiropractic Licensure in North Carolina via Reciprocity Affidavit

Only 5 states qualify for reciprocity with NC:

Florida

S. Dakota

Kansas

Tennessee

Maryland

Reciprocity Candidates from those 5 states will need to:

- Complete the DC application
- Pay the Application fee and background check fee
- Pass the Jurisprudence Exam
- Then comply with:

90-143.1. Applicants licensed in other states.

If an applicant for licensure is already licensed in another state to practice chiropractic, the Board shall issue a license to practice chiropractic to the applicant upon evidence that:

- (1) The applicant is currently an active, competent practitioner and is in good standing; and
- (2) The applicant has practiced at least one year out of the three years immediately preceding his or her application; and
- (3) The applicant currently holds a valid license in another state; and
- (4) No disciplinary proceeding or unresolved complaint is pending anywhere at the time a license is to be issued by this State; and
- (5) The licensure requirements in the other state are equivalent to or higher than those required by this State.

By my signature below I affirm that I comply with all components of NC GS 90-143.1 and I attest that I have practiced at least one year out of the three years immediately preceding this application and I have no disciplinary proceeding or unresolved complaint pending anywhere.
